This is situated on Round Hill, in the town of Northampton, County of Hampshire, Massachusetts, and has adjoining the house about 18 zores of land. The natural capabilities, combined with the good taste of the late owner, have rendered this without exception the most beautiful spot in New-England. The view is extensive and unequaled, embracing Mounts Holyoke and Tom, a long distance of the most beautiful part of Valley and River, and many villages, including Amberst, Hadley, Eachampton and many others. The means of education are unsurpassed by these of any town in the country, the exhools, both private and public, being nonerous and excellent. The situation is remarkably healthy and easy of soccess, being only one mile from the Post-Ordice, and a little more from the C. River and Canal Railroads, by which yeu can be in New-York or Boston in six hours. The Bonne, a very large one, was places in all the rooms finished off with Italian mattle, mantles, &c.; a great deal of Coset room, two excellent wells of water, a large Cistern, Reservoir and Bathing Room, with hot and cold water. There are also on the premises an excellent Gardesser's Cottage, a large and well-built Barn, with Carriage-house and stalls for sit betrees, corn-house, grain-house, products-house and vard, all in perfect order. Part of 18 acres is under cultivation. On the back of the house, producting it from the north and west, is a beautiful Grave of very large Oak and Chestaut Trees, which give a cool and delightful shade in Summer and protect it from the cold winds of Winter; in fact it is always in Winter about 5° warmer at this bouse than in the lower part of the town. There are upon the grounds between 400 and 500 of the choicest and best selected healthy young fruit trees, comprising many varieties in are upon the grounds between 400 and 500 of the choicest and best selected healthy young fruit trees, comprising many varieties in full bearing—Fearhes. WATT'S NERVOUS ANTIDOTE, Prepared by Dr. STRATTON, the sole Preprietor, No. 111 eth The rapid sale this valuable Medicine has had within the last few months is a proof of its efficacy in the cures set forth by me. Persons doubting the value of this never-failing Nervous Medicine, may be satisfied by inquiring of the respectable Druggists in this city, where it is sold. I have had many unasked-for certificates sent to me within the last few days, with permission to refer invalids to the writers thereof. In all cases of a nervous tendency, debility, or irritability, it has seldom falled to cure, and always gives relief.
